Statistics Professor Receives Honorary Swedish Doctorate

UCSB statistics professor S. Rao Jammalamadaka earned an Honorary Doctoral degree in Forestry from the Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences' Faculty of Forest Sciences on Oct. 6.

According to a press release from the statistics and applied probability department, Jammalamadaka has worked with the Faculty of Forest Sciences for more than two decades and provided a dedicated research perspective over the years.

The honor was bestowed along with a doctoral gold ring, diploma and "ceremonial hat" (pictured). Past award honorees include Sweden's current King, Carl XVI Gustaf, as well as IKEA founder and Swedish business magnate Ingvar Kamprad.
