

Financial Mathematics & Statistics PhD Emphasis Requirements

The PhD emphasis in Financial Mathematics and Statistics (FMS) is an official UCSB emphasis that will appear on your PhD transcript. The requirements for the emphasis differ from the requirements for the PhD in Statistics and Applied Probability. Before you can formally petition to add this emphasis, you will need to have fulfilled the requirements listed below; acceptance of this petition is subject to the FMS committee review. Please see the PhD FMS Degree Check-Sheet to plan out your courses.
